REYNOLDS SECONDARY SCHOOL

1970 - 1971

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Reynolds has reached another milestone in its short life of four years, the graduation of our first grade 12 class. These students have been with us since the school opened and it has been interesting to see them develop into young men and women. I am sure the staff will join with me in wishing them success and happiness.

I would like to take this opportunity of thanking the staff for their hard work during the past year, our first as a Junior-Senior Secondary. We opened up 31 new courses for our grade 12 class so that all programs would be available to the students for graduation.

May I also congratulate our students in Grades 8 to 11 for completing another successful year. We are looking forward to seeing you again in September. Have a good holiday.

W.R. Hunter.

VICE

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

The staff of the yearbook usually experiences many trials and tribulations, and this year has been no exception. The members of our hard-working Annual Committee were able to overcome each and every difficulty. They have produced a very attractive and worthwhile record of the activities for 1970-71. Congratulations to all of you.

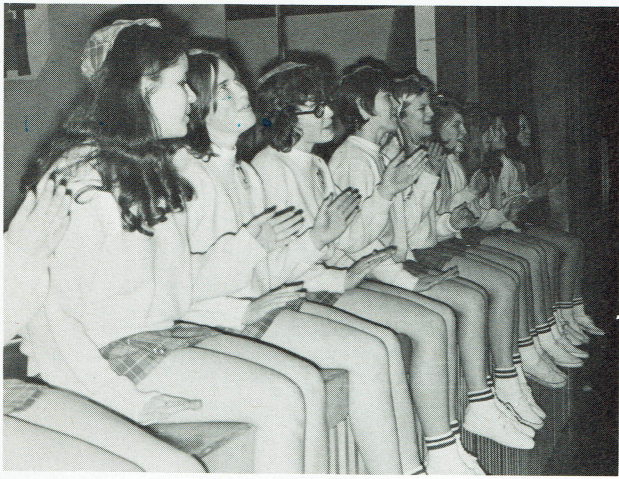

To the first grade twelve graduates of Reynolds, may I offer my very best wishes for successful and satisfying future careers. I hope that the attitudes to which you have been exposed, the knowledge that you have gained, and the ability to get along with other people which you have acquired, will add strength to your resourcefulness and courage. These qualities will assist you in coming to grips with the many demands you may face in our changing society.

I am very pleased that so many students, from all grades, become involved in our school activities. This has helped to establish your sense of belonging and pride in our school. I hope you will continue such involvement in community activities in the future. I would like to commend all those students and staff members who gave their time to make our extra-curricular activities so successful. I am sure this strong foundation will help us to build and extend our activities next year.

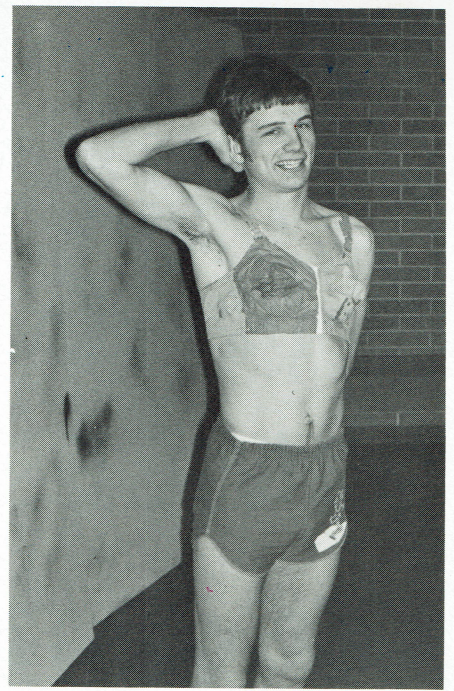

To the graduating class - good luck, and thank you for helping to make Reynolds the fine school it is.

EDITORIAL

Alas, the years have slipped away,
And a page of life has turned.
We look back on those years gone by
For much we should have learned.
We've experienced grief and joy and hope,
And as our lives become complexed
We wonder what it's all about,
And why we stay perplexed.

If we have spent our years learning, of how to get along,
of prejudices, and of mistakes; if we have used these years of being close to people to condition ourselves to be aware of and share the burdens of others, then perhaps we have learned the first phase of our intended purpose.
It takes years to learn about life and to develop an outlook of knowing others, to understand, how they will act, why they say one thing and mean another, or why they hide their sorrows behind a smile. Let us use what we have learned wisely, for it will benefit us in the future.
If we think of others and not just of ourselves, all will fall into place.

PRIME MINISTERS' MESSAGES

Being elected Prime Minister of the Students Council at the beginning of the year was a truly fantastic experience and I would like to thank the students of Reynolds for electing me. There were many problems to be solved at the start of the year but with the help of some teachers and the Student Parliament they were straightened out in no time. But it wasn't all roses either. Several months and many disasters later I decided the only remedy to the situation was to retire from the office of Prime Minister and hand it on to Paul Croy, a member of the Student Cabinet. Since then he has done a great deal of work and I would like to thank him for the job he has done.

John Burkhard

The Prime Minister's position can be described as rewarding but at the same time it can also be frustrating. Without the co-operation of the entire student body, no student parliament can succeed. I know Reynolds has what it takes to be a great school but we have to make the effort. In closing we would both like to thank our sponsor, Mr. Aspestrand, and all the M.S.P.'s for their hard work.

Good luck to all the Grads and to next year's Prime Minister.

Desiderata

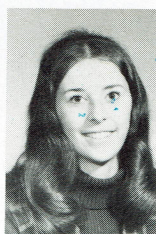

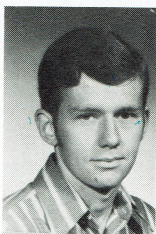

Go placidly amid the noise and haste, and remember what peace there may be in silence. As far as possible without surrender, be on good terms with all persons. Speak your truth quietly and clearly; and listen to others, even the dull and ignorant; they, too, have their story. * Avoid loud and aggressive persons, they are vexations to the spirit. If you compare yourself with others, you may become vain and bitter; for always there will be greater and lesser persons than yourself. Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans. * Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time. Exercise caution in your business affairs; for the world is full of trickery. But let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals; and everywhere life is full of heroism. * Be yourself. Especially, do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment it is perennial as the grass. * Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the tings of youth. Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness. Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself. * You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should. * Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be, and whatever you labours and aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life keep peace with your soul. * With all its sham, drudgery and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world. Be careful. Strive to be happy.

GRADY

Campbell Anderson:

Known as Cosmos to a select circle of friends, Campbell no doubt will combine his artistic abilities with his architectural skills in designing the cities of tomorrow. While braving a heavy course this year, he has been heard to cry, "Where is my red pencil crayon?"

Gay Anderson:

"Talkative, happy, full of fun, one who is liked by everyone." Gay is one of the most active girls in sports at Reynolds. After graduating, Gay (Ganderson to her friends) plans a trip to Hawaii, a few years at university, and then perhaps marriage and raising a family.

Bonnie Arbuckle:

"Boe" can be found on the volleyball court or basketball court trying her hardest for the school. She plans to travel around Europe with Sue B. for a while and then return to the finer things in life, namely her fella.

Lois Atherton:

"Its hard to do what's right, but its harder not to do what's wrong." Lois can never be accused of being long-winded as is evident from her Grad sheet. However, she says she wants to become a dental assistant, and likes horseback riding. Good luck from the yearbook staff.

Diane Bainbridge:

"T'is better to be short and shine, than to be tall and cast a shadow." Di can be seen bombing around in her little car which she calls the "honker". After graduating she plans on trading this in on a VW van, and attending art school in Kelowna.

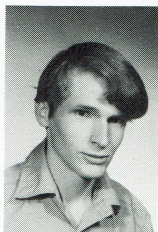

Daryl Barnett:

"He flung himself into his car, and drove off madly in all directions." Barney is a past member of the bowling and weightlifting clubs, and was voted the 1970 Safe Driver of the Year at Reynolds. He is uncertain as to the future, but we all wish him the best of luck.

Ken Bath:

"Happiness is five green traffic lights in a row." George's only words to the annual staff, after a rough weekend (At Haney?????), was "just leave me alone." He is not too certain of leaving Reynold's hallowed halls this year, so next year you will either find him working or studying.

Brian Bayley:

This hard working biology and math student was unable to find room in his busy schedule to tell us his plans, but it looks like a university degree is in the offing for this bright lad. Good luck, Brian, for the future.

Pat Bearman:

Pat has been at Reynolds for the last two years. She lists her activities as inter-divisional basketball, and piano playing. Pat would like to pursue a career working in an office when she moves back to Toronto after graduating.

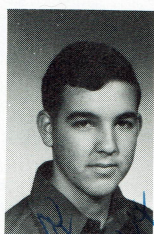

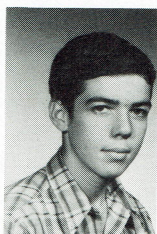

Sue Beischer:

Sue can be seen haunting the gym and sports fields at Reynolds, participating in volleyball, basketball and grasshockey. Her weekends are spent bombing around in a little red sportscar. After graduating, she plans to travel to Europe with Boe, then perhaps pursue a career as a nurse.

Les Biggs:

"Puff" can usually be found in the chess room. He also enjoys playing floorhockey. Although he is planning to be happy hunting around B.C., "puff" is destined to become a cowboy?!

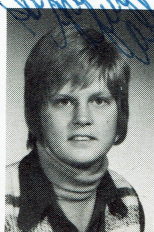

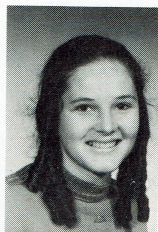

Bob Elack:

"It is not necessary to understand things in order to agree about them." Bob can be called anything, but late for dinner. He is active in curling, enjoys outdoor life and is an indispensable Annual Club member (?). Bob plans a military career.

Lynn Bodner:

"Her eager chatter fills the air, and drives the teachers to despair." Chief Qwichurbichen is the editor-in-chief in this years annual. She is known for her weird ways, ringlets, and hitting people who make sick jokes. She hopes to go to university with H.H.

Karen Booth:

"Fond of mischief, boys and laughter, pleasure first and business after." Kar can be found leaving Reynolds at 3:16 p.m., roaring down Borden in her white krauter, Ethel. This summer she plans to travel across B.C. with Sue, after which she is undecided.

Handwritten notes in blue ink:
Sue Beischer
Pat Bearman
Lynn Bodner
Karen Booth
Bob Elack

Greg Burgess:

Greg lives next door to Doug Gillespie, which is an honour in itself for Greg. Gregoire is known for his unique hair style and flip down side-burns. Greg is uncertain about his future, but his immediate plans include a '53 Chev.

Sandy Burnett:

San lists her interests as swimming, boy chasing, tennis, and horse-back riding. Her favourite saying is "Well O believe ya." We hope she lasts through this summer and her trip to Scotland, without breaking anything (like her arm).

Wendy Bysouth:

Wendy is one of the hard working commerce girls found spending more study time outside Reynolds than inside. She is one of the originals at Reynolds, having been here since it opened four years ago. She would like to hitchhike around the world in 1971-72. (Would you believe Africa?)

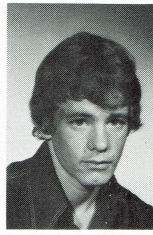

Pat Chapman:

Pat is very uncommunitive at least in concern to her present and future activities. She can be found working in the art room, and because of her unique imagination, she is one of the most promising students in her field.

Mary Chudy:

"The hours have past and it's Friday at last." Our infamous bookworm who partakes in the fine art of male watching, enjoys spending weekends with L. Mary plans a career in nursing, but is liable to end up being a waitress at Woodwards.

Rick Clark:

"People with one track minds are usually on the wrong track or derailed." Rick enjoys bowling, and is one of the starts of YBC. Wreck's pet peeve is English 12. He would like to work for a year after graduation, then travel for a couple of years.

Mike Colbert:

"Parlley-vus' le ding-dong?" Mike is one of four brave boys in French 12. Mike is another past member of the bowling and weight-lifting. He has no specific plans for after graduation, just general bumming around.

Annelies Contant:

Lisa spends most of her time spelling her name for dim-witted teachers. A new member of our school, Annelies has joined the Grad committee and Young Life. After she graduates she is going down south, for a few years of college and then she plans to be a social worker.

Kathy Conyers:

"Always laughing, joking, kidding, sure enjoys the life she's living." Kathy has been the treasurer of our student parliament for the past two years. After graduation she is going to spend her time with Ernie and working as a cashier at k-Mart.

Sue Conyers:

We can thank Sue for a lot of the good typing in Ubique '71. She spends much of her time steppin' high with the Victoria girls Drill Corps. She is also a member of the local Junior Achievement. She says she would like to be a secretary. (how about a cleaning lady?)

Don Couch:

"Blessed is he who sits on tacks for he shall rise to great heights." Buck P. Fouch is the center of many practical jokes, but Reynolds would not be the same without him. We wish Don good luck on his proposed trip to England this summer.

Jan Dalton:

"If laughing's a sin, why does the Lord let so many funny things happen?" Sewing, Junior Achievement, tennis and boys take up much of Jan's time. Her greatest hope is to graduate from Grade 12, after which she plans to go to university.

Laurie Dash:

Senoir Band, projectionist and the running of the "Slot Machines" in the cafeterias are some of Laurie's hobbies. It is rumoured that as President of the Reynolds Vending Machine Club, he skims 20% off the profit. After graduating Laurie plans to work full time for a vending machine company (servicing the slots in 'Vegas.)

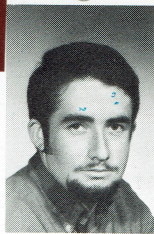

Marilyn Dick:

Marilyn is a member of the Secretary Pool. She is also a Percussionist in the Senior Band. Marilyn's personal life is quite secretive but, is learnt she plans to enter U.B.C.

Sue Dimock:

Sue is one of the many students who are interested in pollution and belongs to the Environment 100 Club. During this summer, Sue would like to take a trip across Canada, enjoying two of her favourite hobbies, swimming and water skiing. We hope she can find a place fit to swim.

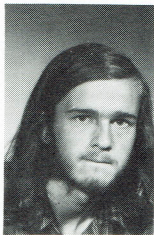

Good luck Paul Douglas

Paul Douglas:

"If you're looking for an ambitious man, I have as little ambition as anyone." Paul hopes to finish his schooling by his 21st birthday. He can be seen being coached in French and Math by some of the brighter Grade 9 students. We wish Paul good luck in his future career with the R.C.M.P.

Kevin Doyle:

Kevin is a man of the sea. He enjoys such wonderful things as scuba diving in winter, fishing at night, and ignorant seagulls. "Heavy Key" hopes to cross Canada in a rickety old ford after graduating but chances are Hope will be as far as he gets.

Ken Dunn:

"Good things come in tall packages." Ken is the only guy in the school who comes to classes in January with a Hawaiian tan. We wonder if he took his 10-speed with him. In spite of his long hair, Ken does very well in school.

Marion Eisenhuth:

Mar had no comment to give the Annual staff about her future or present activities. Maybe she has something to hide.

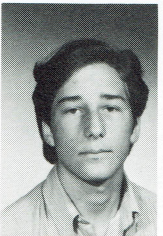

Robert Ericson:

"Rounder" is the school's one and only one-man band. His talent seems to outshine his slowly progressing intelligence. All in all, Rounder never exercises a dull moment and would, if given a chance choose the live he newsleads, as a kidder.

John Ferguson:

"Jack of all trades, master of none." Fergie enjoys parties and playing his guitar. He makes friends easily as long as they are under 25. After graduating, "Fergie" will possibly try to straighten out strange people (himself?).

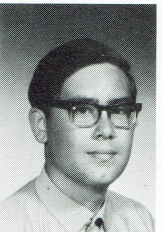

Linda Fernyhough:

Linda also took part in Environment 100 because she believes in happiness in an unpolluted society. Poetry and music go hand in hand on her list of likes. Linda plans on going to the higher halls of learning.

Ron Fielden:

"Undisturbed by stress & hurry, inclined to work but not to worry." Flash's rapier like wit and intelligence has frequently been compared to the brightness of a five-watt lightbulb. Flash is one of the best academic students at Reynolds.

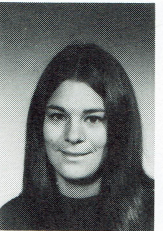

Chris Foster:

"Thinking is but an idle waste of time." Chris is another vice-president of the Grade 12 Lunch Club. After lunch he can either be found playing inter-divisional sports, or competing in the school chess tournament.

Marylou Foster:

Marylou is one of Reynolds best fashion sewers. She is also a leading clarinet player in the senior band. Mary is not certain as to what she will do after finishing school this year.

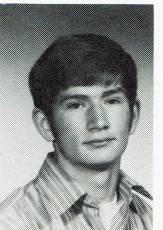

Jan Frankson:

"She's a little lass with lots of pep, and the best sport you've ever met." Jan belongs to Young-life, the Roadrunner Club and the senior band. She lists her other activities as sewing & sports, and was a member of the Reynolds Volleyball team that went to the B. C. Finals.

John Fryer:

John is one of the many 10-speed bike fans at Reynolds. He says he belongs to the Raleigh fan club, and his pet peeve is any Gitane bike. Besides the band, chess and cross-country, John delivers telegrams for C.N.R. John wired us that he will be getting a job after he graduated.

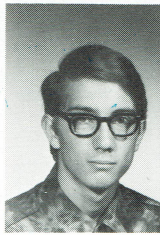

Shelly Gale

Shelly Gale:

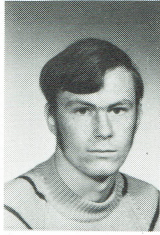

Cramming for a Biology test is Shelly's specialty. She enjoys art work and horseback riding. Her time is mostly spent with one particular guy. When finished school, she will probably have a career with horses.

Del Gallup:
 "Flunk out now and avoid the rush."
 Good luck Del, wherever you are.

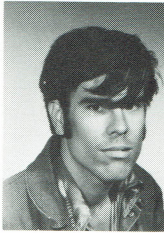

Laurie Garrett:
 If you're looking for Laurie don't look where the work is. Laurie enjoys sports and is a member of the Community Recreation 12 class. He is one of Mr. Buckler's "wonders", slaving in Chemistry 12.

Greg Giles:
 Greg excells in inter-divisional sports and enjoys working in the wood shop. He is one of the Grade 12 Chemistry students. Greg refuses to reveal his future plans, so we will wish him luck anyway.

Doug Gillespie:
 Doug excells in sports and is known for his good personality. Doug spends his time either studying, working on his car, playing soccer or with a certain female friend of his. Doug plans on attending university to study law, hopefully to become one of Victoria's most prominent "Legal Beagles."

Ron Goodwin:
 Ron spends most of his time jumping from job to job trying to get enough bread to insure or run his hot (?) 350 Yamaha. Ron is a very regular History student, but is noted that he is rendered speechless by the complexities of that subject every class.

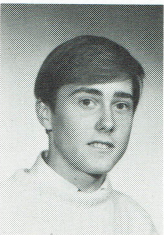

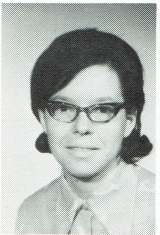

Don Grainger:
 Don is this year's M.S.P. for Div.1. He makes his contribution to Reynolds by supporting the wall in the lower hall, and oogling the girls as they walk by. He wants to get as far away from school as possible when he graduates.

Irene Grainger:
 Irene violently objected to having fill out a grad. sheet, but she broke down and told us that she plans to become a nurse at Jubilee Hospital. From other sources we learned that she occupies her time with cooking, Junior Achievement, and a certain guy.

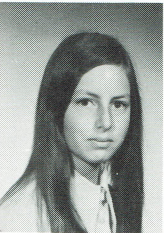

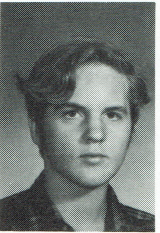

Anita Grant:
 "Love me or leave me. . Hey! Where ya goin'?" "Sarah" is a typing bug. She's known for her fine driving, stopping on a dime is her specialty. Sarah works at Woodwards, in the shoe department. She is uncertain as to what she will do after graduation.!

Janette Grant:
 Jan is planning to become a dental assistant, and soon after will be changing her name. She is always heard saying, emphatically, "no way!" Jan is one of Reynolds best sewing and textiles students.

Mike Grew:
 Mike combines his hobby with his work: riding bicycles. One for work (delivering telegrams for CN) and one for pleasure. He belongs to the band, chess club, and the track and field team. After graduating, Mike would like to work for a year then enter university.

Warren Hadow:
 Warren is one of our talented art students. He has quite an ability for silk-screening and pen and ink drawings. It seems evident that Warren detests arriving home any earlier than 8:30. When he is free from school he hopes to find what he's looking for.

Gayle Hadfield:
 Gayle is another of the hard-working secretarial students who are typing up this year's annual. She likes to swim, sew, and do bead work. In the future she plans to get a job as a stenographer at B.C. Tel.

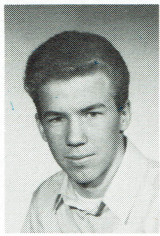

Brian Hawkins:
 The "Hawk" can never be accused of being a bad student. He always has his assignments in on time, even if it means skipping out of French. We know he'll say "that's ridiculous," because he says it to everything else. He plans to go to college.

Judy Heslegrave:
 "Spring has sprung, the sun is riz. . . I wonder where Judy iz?" Jude plans to make a career out of working as an Airline Travel Consultant or a Ticket Agent. Here at Reynolds she lists her activities as volleyball and sewing.

Wayne Hodgins:

"Make war, not love." "Corp" spends most of his time in either the woodwork or metal shops. Where he finds time to go to class remains an unsolved mystery. His spare time is spent driving trucks in the Army Reserve. He wants a degree in Industrial Education.

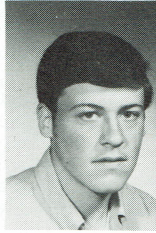

Dennis Hodgson:

Denoise has the unique honor of being one of the only 2 guys who has been told not to hold hands with his girlfriend, in the school, by a certain vice-principal. He spends his time at Western Speedway or Safeway, and plans to go to university.

Patsy Holding:

Boja! Boja! These words can come only from one person. Pat is also noted for turning textiles 12B upside down. She plans to be a kindergarten teacher (beware future five year olds). Pat also hopes to do as much world traveling as she can.

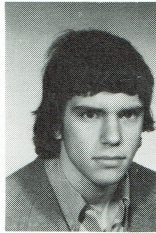

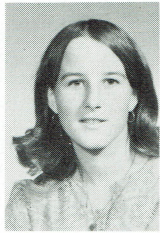

Ron Holmes:

"Mind like a bear trap, all furry and rusted." Ron is representing Reynolds on the Victoria All-Star Soccer Team which visited England in April. If Ron had his choice, Monday mornings would be outlawed, all wires on the P.A. system would be ripped out, etc. (uh-huh)

Cathie Hopkins:

"Some love ten and some love twenty, but Cath loves one and that's a plenty!" Cathie is one of the most excellent organizers in the school, she is continually pulling all the weight in getting projects off the ground. Curling, working on the annual, sewing, community rec., and a fair-haired fella take up Cath's time.

Mike Hoppe:

Mikal is known for "esotericism" (whatever that means.) He plans to go to the Isle of Manhattan or to become a scalper on the streets of New York. Mikal is a fun loving art student and has no immediate plans for the future.

Elsie Hull:

Elsie's main interest is dogs. If she's not busy at a dog show you will be sure to find her in room 112 working diligently on her bookkeeping. When she has completed Grade 12, she plans to work in an office as a clerk-typist and help her father out in his business.

Harry Hunter:

Harry is going to celebrate the B.C. Centennial in a very unique way. He plans to be the first person in 2000 years to walk on water. He's known for his size 13's. Harry is this year's outdoors club president, and is a past winner of the Duke of Edinburgh's award.

Linda Hurrell:

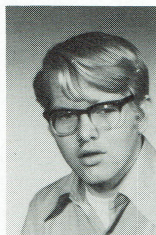

Linda dislikes immature guys who don't know their own minds. Her hobbies are cooking and sewing. Linda would like to become a dental assistant as quickly as possible, but is afraid she'll end up as an unworking rock worshiper.

Jill Hutchins:

Jill's plans after graduating are to get a job and save enough money until she gets enough to go to Europe. When she gets there she will buy a van and travel around, maybe even settle down. Hope she doesn't meet any hypocrites; her pet peeve.

Best wishes for a happy & healthy future. Love, Sue
Sue Jennings:
"First impression - quiet & demure. But my friends don't be so sure." Sue enjoys camping, sewing, cooking and outdoor sports. When camping, Sue can produce some super variations of pancakes. She plans to travel and camp around B.C. this summer with Karen B.

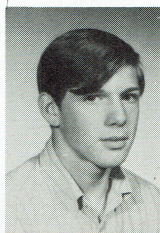

Bruce Johnson:

"Eat, drink and be merry, for tomorrow we may have a test." Noah is recognized around the school when he is trying to drive his ark. Bruce has a distinct dislike for French. You can see him heading east this summer, probably yelling 90° to the port side--damn the road-blocks, full speed ahead.

Mike Jones:

"Laugh and the world laugh's with you, cry and I'll laugh anyway." Mike spends most of his time buying and selling cars. During school you will generally find Mike on the absentee list or in the library talking about his latest deal.

Sharon Kinghorn:

Shar plays on school teams and outside teams, playing volleyball and basketball. Her goal in life is to get her coat she's making in Home Ec. together so that it looks like a coat. U.B.C. is Sharon's destiny as it is farther from Victoria and closer to more sports.

Chris Kissinger:

Work and Worry have killed many a man, so why should I take a chance. Chris has devoted much of the last four years at Reynolds to Curling, Hiking, and the Duke of Edinburgh Awards. (Not to mention his pursuit of the fairer sex.) His future plans include participation in the B.C. Forest industry.

Kelly Kostouros:

Kelly is known for helping in the organization of the student pep rallies. She is a very enthusiastic and fun person. She is a member of the Roadrunner Club. Little is known as to Kelly's career.

Jane Lavoie:

"Ideas are things that never work unless you do." If you are looking for Jane, try downstairs in the new art complex, where she creates her masterpieces. She will be heading for the Kelowna Regional College where she plans to major in art.

Gloria Lee:

Gloria is a fine Math student. She can usually be heard, but not understood, speaking Cantonese to her friend. Never mind, Gloria, you're more fortunate than most students attempting the French course.

Tim Lester:

"Did those brains of ancient time, have to work as hard as mine?" Tim plays the Fagoda in the senior band. Besides sailing his 18ft. dinghy, curling on the school team and building an 8" reflective telescope, he is working on Math, Chem, and Physics 12. Good luck at University

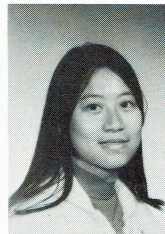

Laurie Lewis:

"If I am not for myself, who will be for me?
If I am only for myself, what am I?
If not now--when?"
Laurie spends much of her free time Highland Dancing. She is going to UVic and will major in Arts & English.

Kristine Long:

"Kristy" is forever attached to her beloved typewriter. She plans to go to England with Helen after school, and then she will continue her education in donut making. Her final destiny is a computer programmer.

Margaret Louie:

Marg was new at Reynolds this year. She talks to Gloria in Chinese, and nobody (especially certain teachers) has the faintest idea about what she's talking. Marg cooks, sews, and skates, and hopes to be a nurse.

Cheryl MacDonald:

Cheryl can often be seen bombing around on her ten speed. She has a part-time job, is active in Job's Daughters, is an Annual Staff Member, and is in the school band. Cheryl plans to go to Simon Fraser next year in the field of education.

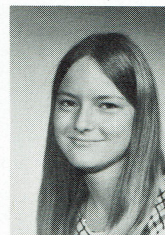

Darlene MacDonald:

"Bubbles" can be spotted on the volleyball court spiking the ball into the ground or with her feet in the air halfway down the ski-slope. Darlene is thinking of getting into the secretarial field when she finished school and after she visits Hawaii.

well another great year has come to an end. I've been waiting for the school to go away with ya. We'll have a summer see ya. probably. Can.

Shannon McAndrews:

"Sixty seconds hath a minute, how much devilry can I do in it?" Shannon is well known for her leaping and bounding around, squealing with delight at almost anything. Her main interests are the band and curling

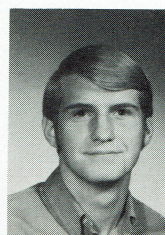

Diana McLean:

Diana is an excellent synchronized swimmer. She coaches swimming also. She enjoys camping, hiking and trying to ski. Di also tries her skill at curling. She "thinks" she might be an elementary school teacher.

Michael McMillin:

Mike is known for helping little old ladies half-way across the street. His pet peeve is women's lib. Mickey intends on jumping for joy after completing school, and then living on cloud 9.

Don McRae:

Dewey is very active around the school; M.S.P., rugby, inter-mural sports and the construction of the Commons Room. He hopes his destiny will not include being "stuck" in Mr. Buckler's chem, class for another year.

George Markides:

"Life is one darn thing after another, Love is two things after each other." George is twice president of the band and an active supporter of the Curling Club and Outdoors Club. He is one of the Duke of Edinburg boys and plans of attending University.

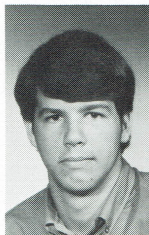

Virginia Maxwell:

Virginia is a new addition to our school. She came from New Zealand as an exchange student, and is staying at one of our student's home. She enjoys sports, art and living. She plans to go into an architectural field.

Max Miller:

"Backwards, turn backwards oh time in your flight, and tell me just who was I out with last night." Max enjoys hockey, tennis and golf. He is known for his white chev truck. His pet peeve is traffic tickets.

Corinne Milne:

Corinne participates with the rest of the students in the English program--sleeping. Her favourite pastime is a certain guy in a green car.

Doug Moreside:

Doug belongs to the Lakehill Looters Motorcycle Club. We understand there is only one member so far. He is very adept at fixing making and riding bikes (motor of course) and surprisingly enough he may have a career with them.

Doug Monroe:

"Don't take life too seriously . . . you'll never get out of it alive." Doug can sometimes be heard roaring down Borden in his little red car. Good luck in the future.

Larry Neill:

Larry's favourite saying is "Not in your life!" He spends most of his time searching for a sucker to buy his motor-cycle. It is understandable that Larry's pet peeve is motorcycles that don't work. He will try a crack at the university life.

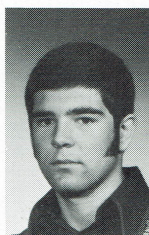

Paul Partridge:

I've lost my book, where can it be? Where I've left it I can't recall. But then of course it occurs to me, My search will end when I find Paul. Paul is the president of a J.A. Co. He plans to work, then go to university.

Brian Patriquin:

Brian is (or rather he and his Canso) can be heard every morning in front of Reynolds. He's our up-to-date man in fashion. We wish him luck.

Gordon Pinderton:

"Use your head . . . it's the small things that count." If you ever saw some sly devil standing around doing nothing, you'd know it was Gord. Gord likes English (he never goes) and little old ladies. Say hello to all the birds in Bastion Square for us.

Karen Porter:

Karen's pet peeve are eye-lashes that keep falling out. After she graduates she would like to travel around in a van for a couple of years.

Evelyn Raine:

"Give a guy an inch and he thinks he's a ruler." Eve belongs to the chess and music appreciation Clubs. She also belongs to the Future Teachers Club, because after she graduates she wants to go to university and then teach.

Vivian Rich

"A quiet tongue makes a wise head". Besides dancing, her interests include music, literature, and the theatre. Vivian would like to go to university after graduating, and work for her Ph.D in Math.

Ken Robson:

As the day slowly comes to an end we find Ken furiously sanding down the last foot of board, and tightening the last bolt. But as night falls he puts on his Batman cape and screams into the night in his high flying Falcon.

Kris Schaub:

"The next time you say Schau-b-b-b, I'm going to hit you in the mouth." Kris can be heard reciting geographical sayings around the school, or looking for someone to speak French with. Upon graduating, Kris will attend U-Vic, and then become a secretary.

Pat Shea:

"So much to do, so little done, what do I care, I'm having fun." Patrick, the countries next Mr. Fix-it, wants to be a P.E.N.G. (whaaa?) When he graduates he is going to Japan. He is a curler, hiker, and Duke of Edinburgh award winner.

Dennis Siddon:

Dennis is another one of Reynolds art buffs. Known for his resounding silence during Mr. Smith's English class discussions. Dennis tells us his hobby is folk guitar. He may go to technical school, but he is not too certain.

Pat Simmonds:

If you ever want something done with a smile, ask Pat. One of the best seamstresses in this school, Pat belongs to 4H, likes to curl, hike, play volleyball, and plays baritone in the band. She plans to be a seamstress.

Ken Smith:

"Give him an inch, and he'll measure it." Ken is one of Reynolds star pessimists, and was a member of the ill fated senior Rugby team. Ken wouldn't tell us his future plans, but he has been seen entering the Armed Forces recruiting office. Perhaps a career in a jolly-green jumper, eh Ken?

Helen Spark:

"Lead us not into temptation, just show us the way and we'll find it ourselves." Sparkie is very active around the school, playing on the volleyball court, or swinging around the uneven bars. When she graduates she plans on going to England with Kristy. Have fun!

Brenda Spring:

Frequently seen in the halls around 8:50 in the morning, Brenda has gained Mr. Whiles's never ending question--"Here or late?" Brenda is the wonder of the sewing class, who is found in the textiles room at lunch.

Ernie Springer:

Corporal Springer is a militiaman in the Service Corps. He has a second main interest which will remain unmentioned. Have fun and good luck in the future.

Barry Stoneman:

Don't tell me what I mean, let me figure it out for myself." Barry is another one of these boys who are uncertain as to their future. If you're looking for Barry, try the lower art room.

Ron Strutt:

"The most intelligent people are dying off....Do you have an aspirin?" Ron, whose hero is Edgar Allan Poe, is fascinated by the things that are written about in Poe's stories. Let's hope these stories don't interfere with Ron's classical guitar playing.

Vic Sweet

The "Blonde Bomber" had no comment to give to the annual staff so he will remain in hiding.

Elaine Tandberg:

Better known as "Oswald Slugfest," Elaine is one of Reynolds famed basketball and volleyball players. She is an irreplaceable member of the Annual Club and a very good gymnast. Elaine's future plans include coaching volleyball teams and going to U-Vic on the Education Programme.

Anne Thackeray:

"She can resist anything but temptation". "Annabelle" is on the science programme and is doing rairly well (touch wood). Among her interests are curling and band, where she may be heard twittering away on her flute. Anne may be going to B.C.I.T. for some foods courses, but at present she plans to work next year.

Kathleen Thorsteinson:

"Perierient tempera longi servitii." (The time of my long bondage has passed.) Kathy is a member of the Music Appreciation Club. She plans to enter university and study French or to travel. Her destiny is left to providence.

Joan Trace:

J.P. has talents in horseback riding, cooking, and sewing. She loves the outdoors and can quite often be seen riding her horse around Mt. Doug. She hopes to work and travel. Joan has a good motto--"to live each day as it comes". Have fun, Joan.

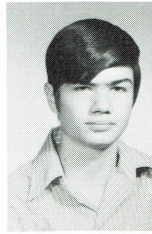

Judy Tschritter:

"Judes" main interest is getting through grade 12 on the Clerical program. Her main hobby is Modern Jazz. In the future she plans to travel throughout Europe and California.

Rita Van Bree:

Rita likes to ride horses, sew and skate. She would like to learn to speak her native tongue, which is Dutch. She hopes to spend the summer in Holland and then become a happy housewife.

Randy Vinden:

"Long ago there was a prophecy of great things to come. Well, here I am." Randy's pet peeve is people who talk when they don't know what they're talking about. Randy is one of the millions who will go to university.

Lorna Walton:

Lorna's main interests are volleyball, basketball and other sports. She played on the school volleyball team that went to the B.C. finals and also was on the basketball team. Lorna works part-time in a florist shop, and intends to pursue this field when she graduates.

Gary Watters:

Gary is one of the top Industrial Education students at Reynolds. He possesses infinite amounts of varied skills and talents which are coupled with a realistic and jovial personality to result in one of the schools finest students.

Elaine Weiker:

Elaine is noted for her indecision about whether or not she will pass exams. Her smiling disposition later in the day always indicate a pass. Her main activities are intramural track and coaching a little boys basketball team. On completion of Gr. 12, Elaine would like to train as a computer programmer.

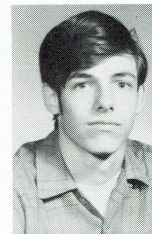

Ronna West:

"Ron" is known to have a personality like a barrel of monkeys. Her main interest is getting out of school and working as a clerk-typist. Then she is going to save enough money for her future trip to Europe and Africa.

Don Wharf:

Don was born April 28, 1953 (sorry we don't know the exact minute). He is known to his friends as "Stwarf". Don is an avid hockey fan, rooting for the Montreal Canadians. At Reynolds he was a member of the defunct bowling team, and an M.S.P.

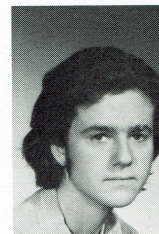

Mike Wheatly:

Mike is rumoured to have spent over $1,000 over the last 4 years supporting the local bakery. While not eating, Mike takes time out to hike and camp with the Outdoors Club. His plans after graduating are just to "get lost".

Bob Wood:

Bob was a little unsure of what he's been doing at Reynolds for the last 4 years, and unsure of what the future holds, but we know it includes his bike. Good luck anyway.

Lillian Stoyles:

"Newfy" is quite the baby-sitter when it comes to entertaining kids in her child care class. When she's not out with her fella, she can be seen bowling or playing intramural sports. She wants to finish school, get a steady job, and travel.
